Hey Mad Fish Fans.....

We have exciting news! We will be producing a periodic newsletter to keep you informed of all of the happenings in Mad Fish Land! Our goal is to keep you current with all three of my shows, Charlie Moore Outdoors, Beat Charlie Moore, and Charlie Moore TV. We want to bring you the latest news about upcoming guests, show locations and personal appearances as well as any contests or events that may arise.

My crew and I have been very busy filming new shows for ESPN, NESN

at 7:30 am EST with a challenge in Maine that involved fly fishing and float tubes! The new season of Charlie Moore TV began in April on WFN with an episode about my vacation in Florida with my family. Please look for new episodes of Charlie Moore Outdoors on NESN during the Summer of Fun!

and WFN. Our new season of Beat Charlie Moore began on January 3, 2009

Charlie and Challenger Tom Raftery...

Charlie in San Diego!

In January I traveled to San Diego with my wife, Angela, and my crew to accept a challenge by Tom Raftery to fish from kayaks in San Diego Bay! We were very happy to leave behind a cold and snowy January in New England and board a plane bound for sunny San Diego! Fishing from a kayak proved to be a challenge, but one I readily accepted! Of course, someone should have told me that jeans were not appropriate attire for kayaking! Does anyone know how uncomfortable jeans are when they are wet? While there, we were able to take in a few of the sights, such as Old Town and Little Italy. Our hotel offered a great view of Mission Bay. Tom was a lot of fun and a great guest! Stay tuned to see the outcome of this show!

Charlie and Clint Howard

Charlie vs. Clint Howard

In my career, I have been lucky enough to meet many interesting people. Recently I filmed an episode of Beat Charlie Moore with actor Clint Howard, which first aired on February 14, 2009. The first part of the challenge was to see who could catch the most fish while sitting in a rubber raft! The second part of the challenge included a wiffle ball game! People will recognize Clint from his many different roles on TV and in the movies, but who knew he could throw such a mean curve ball? Luckily, I possess many talents myself, and hitting curve balls just happens to be one of them!

Recently, I had the good fortune to film an episode of Beat Charlie Moore with Mike Golic from ESPN Radio's Mike and Mike in the Morning. We spent the day on Tyler Lake in Goshen, CT. The challenge was to see who could catch the most fish. We had a great day on the water and off. We caught some fish, played some football, well sort of, and just had fun being outdoors. Mike Golic is genuine guy and I look forward to having him on the show again. Look for an encore presentation of this episode 6/20/09 at 10am EST.

Boston Celtics' Ray Allen

Ray Allen and Charlie

After the Boston Celtics won the World Championship in 2008, I was able to film a show with Ray Allen. We had a great day to be on the water fishing and talking about Ray and the Celtics winning the Championship. The competition between Ray and myself was pretty intense to see who would come out on top with the most fish! Of course, there was a small wager based on the outcome! Our day also included a game of basketball on the lake! The person that got the most baskets won. Ray is a great guy and I really enjoyed having him as a guest on my show! I look forward to watching him play with the Celtics for a long time.
